PRIMARY STATE OF RESIDENCE Although ARNP licenses are not themselves covered by the enhanced nurse license compact agreement (eNLC), an ARNP must hold an RN license either in Iowa or in another compact state, as the basis for their ARNP.

- If you reside in Iowa, and are issued an Iowa multi-state license, the Iowa RN must be active in order to obtain an Iowa ARNP.
- If you declare a non-compact state as your primary state of residence, you must hold an active Iowa RN license which authorizes you to practice only in Iowa, in order to obtain an Iowa ARNP.
- If you declare another eNLC state as your primary state of residence, and hold a current multi-state license in that state, your Iowa ARNP will be based on the RN license in your primary state.
- If you declare another eNLC state as your primary state of residence, but your license in that state is a single state license, you must hold an active Iowa RN license in order to be issued an Iowa ARNP.

See the Enhanced Nurse Licensure Compact rules and regulations for more information.
